ENTRY FEE RS.999/-

(One time fee for registration of auditions)

Free Artist Card On Arrival

To register for the auditions, a fee of Rs. 999 is required which covers the cost of an Artist Card and the audition, that will be given to you after your audition. Each artist is allowed to participate twice, but will need to pay an additional fee for re-registration after the first audition. The audition process is comprised of multiple phases, which are outlined below.

Stage I - 10 registered participants will participate in a group discussion. Participants who pass this round will move on to the next stage.

Stage II - Stage 2 of the auditions is the pre-audition performance. Participants who pass the group discussion round will perform their talent for an approval team who will assess their overall performance. Those who are approved by the team will move on to the final stage of the auditions.

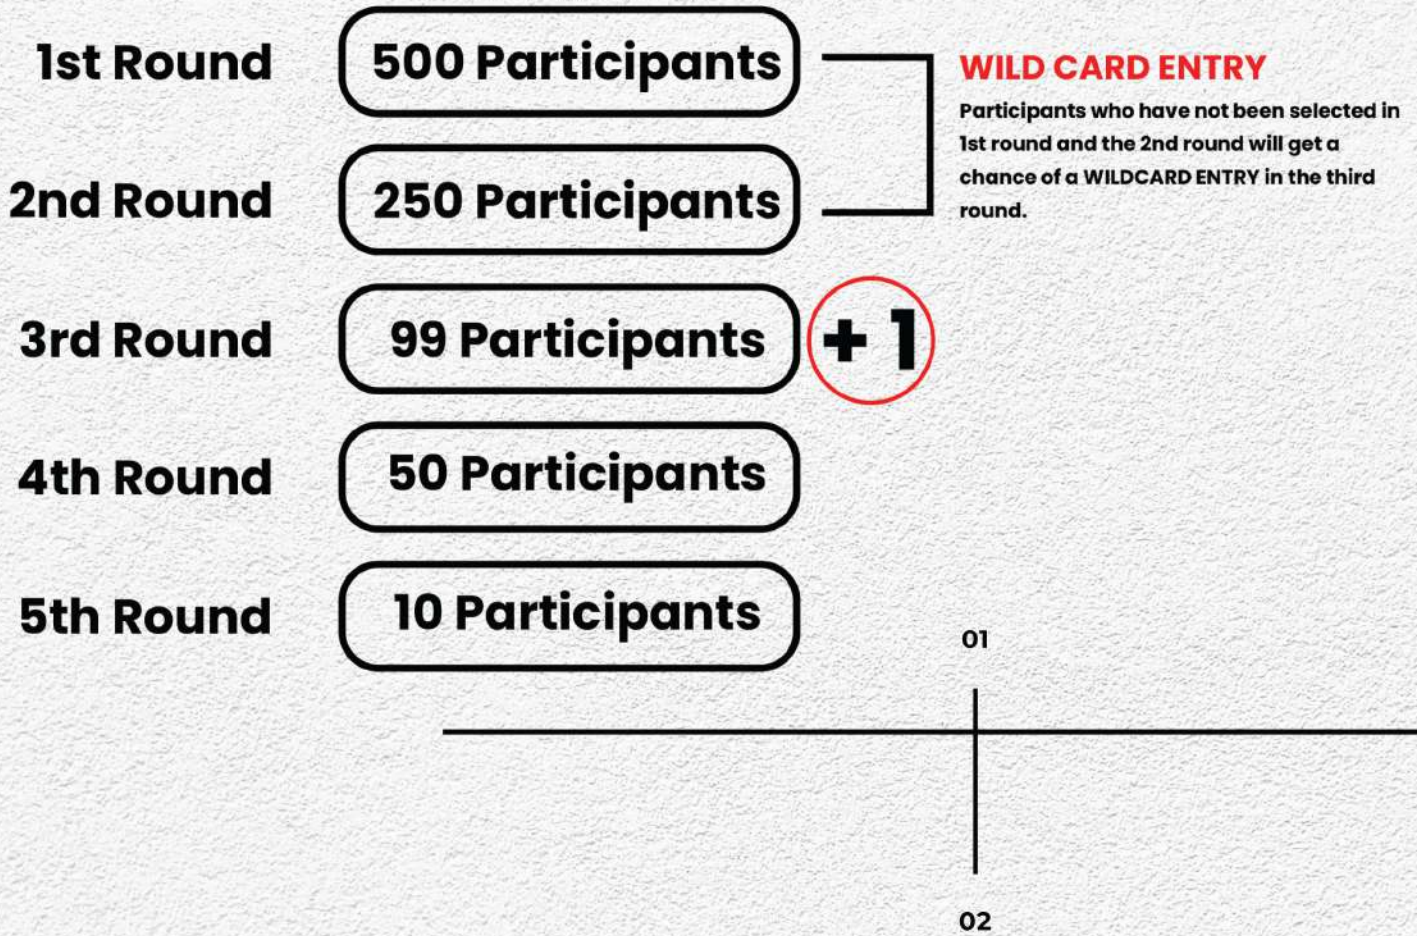

Stage III - Stage 3 is the final audition, where participants will perform their talent in front of a panel of judges, and their performance will be recorded for further evaluation. The judges will assess their skills, presentation, creativity, and overall performance to select the participants for the next round.
